Rosh Hashanah is also known as the Head of the Year; it is celebrated on the first and second days of the seventh month, Tishri, and is the Jewish New Year festival. Rosh Hashanah, itself, has several meanings including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Commemorating the anniversary of the creation otherwise known as the birthday of the universe. • Being called the day of judgement and the day of remembrance by rabbis (Jewish teachers) It is day of prayer, a time to ask for help in the year ahead and a time to remember the power of God whom they believe created the universe Yom Kippur Yom Kippur known as the Day of Atonement, follows 10 days after Rosh Hashanah. These ten days from Rosh Hashanah to Yom Kippur are known as the High Holy Days and are days of repentance. Yom Kippur remembers the day Moses asked God to forgive the people of Israel for their sins On Yom Kippur, the holiest day of the year, God assesses a person's behaviour over the last year and this is sealed in the Book of Life.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Synagogue visits • Personal prayer – reflection • Reading the holy books and remembering the examples and teachings of the prophets • Joining together as a community of believers 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Why is it a good idea to sort any arguments out? • What would I like to put right? • Is it a good idea to have a fixed date to remember to sort out arguments? • What impact would this have on my life if I acted in this way?
